

Dates to Remember

SPECIFIC DATES:

January 1, 2001 – The new Operator Certification Regulation went into effect.

September 1, 2001

- Deadline date for distribution operators that were certified through the CA-NV-AWWA before January 1, 2001 and wish to renew their distribution certificate through the State. Penalty fees will be assessed on renewals received after this date.

December 31, 2001 – Last day to submit an application for interim certification.

December 31, 2002 – Last day to submit an application from AWWA operators to renew their distribution certification with the State.

July 1, 2003 - September 1, 2003 - Renewal period for interim certificates. Penalty fees will be assessed on interim renewals received after this date.

December 31, 2003

- Interim certificates expire but can be renewed once.
- Temporary certificates expire and cannot be renewed.

January 1, 2004

All renewals that expire on or after this date will require continuing education hours.

GENERAL EXAM DATES:

TREATMENT

March 1 – Final Filing Date for the May Water Treatment Exam

May (third Saturday) – Water Treatment Exam

September 1 - Final Filing Date for the November Water Treatment Exam

November (third Saturday) - Water Treatment Exam.

DISTRIBUTION (as of 2004)

February 1 - Final Filing Date for the April Water Distribution Exam

April (third or fourth Saturday depending on the Holiday) – Water Distribution Exam

August 1 – Final filing date for the October Distribution exam.

October (third Saturday) – Water Distribution Exam